RESPECT LIFE

Being a person of life while living amid a culture of death requires the lessons of today's first reading and gospel regarding what a prophet faces. We are all prophets by our baptism, and therefore share both in the blessings and burdens of that particular vocation. We are blessed in that we have and know with certainty the Word and will of God regarding the sanctity of life. The burden we have is that we must speak that word - in fact, proclaim it - amidst people who may not necessarily want to hear it. The lesson of these readings is that (a) we should expect opposition, not be surprised at it, and (b) we should not measure the success of the prophetic mission by how well we are accepted, but rather by how faithful and loving we are in carrying out the mission entrusted to us. BLESSED SACRAMENT A STEWARDSHIP PARISH

The Mission of Blessed Sacrament Church is to form and sustain a Catholic community in which all are welcomed and provided with the opportunities and means to know Christ better, to grow in faith and love, and to give witness jointly to the Kingdom of God by their lives.

THE PARADOX OF STEWARDSHIP GRATITUDE ... COMMITMENT ... TRUST ... GENEROSITY

A missionary in Africa had taught his people to tithe. He had explained that "tithe" meant "one-tenth," and that this should be their goal. He also had emphasized the difference between giving what is left over and giving off the top. Early one morning a man came to the door with a fine fish, explaining that this was his "tithe". "You must have done well," said the missionary, "if you already caught 10 fish." "No," said the man, "This is the one I've caught so far. I'm going back now to catch the other nine."

ADMIRABLE, HARDLY PRACTICAL ... Reaction to the above parable typically begins with a general discussion of the concept of tithing and its application in our modern society that usually leads to a debate about the reality of "one-tenth" in our personal world. From there, the discussion often moves to marvel at the simple trust of the fisherman that usually ends with agreement that while it's admirable, it's hardly practical.

NEVER ENDING CIRCLE ... Stewardship starts with God and the belief in His abundance. God has promised to return the gifts that are returned to Him. It is a never ending circle. We receive gifts from God, we return them with increase. Not to be outdone, God returns them back to us. This is not the reason stewards give; it is the result of giving. That is the paradox of Stewardship.

All too often, however, we have a scarcity mentality. All we can see is what we lack. We hold on to possessions like a toddler who has just learned the word "mine." We believe that the more we hold on to what we have, the better off we will be. The truth is that the tighter we hold on to what we have, the less we can receive. The recognition of the extent to which we are blessed by God materially, mentally and spiritually should lead first to gratitude and then to generosity.

Christian stewards recognize that nothing is truly ours, we're only caretakers. When we accept this, the burden of holding on to our possessions is lifted. We have to let go. Only when we are willing to surrender what we have ... to share our gifts ... will God bestow even more blessings on us. The more we give away, the more we are blessed. It is a never ending circle ... GRATITUDE ... COMMITMENT ... TRUST ... GENEROSITY.

ANNUAL COMMITMENT ... The question sometimes arises, "Why is it important to renew our Stewardship Commitment on an annual basis in Blessed Sacrament Parish?" It is important for a number of reasons. Commitment and the Renewal of our Commitment is an integral step in the never ending circle.

- The life of stewardship like other messages in Scripture and teachings of the Church needs to be presented on a regular basis. Without those regular reminders and encouragements regarding Bible messages and Church teachings, we have a tendency to revert to old ways.
- Like other areas in our spiritual life, we can always grow in our stewardship life. Renewing our commitment to stewardship gives us the opportunity to take the next step in increasing our gifts of time in prayer; of time and talent in ministry and service; and time, talent and treasure in grateful giving.
- Annual Renewal of our Stewardship commitment allows those in our parish who have not participated previously to begin to live the life of stewardship.
- New parishioners will have the chance to commit to a life of stewardship, many for the first time.

Blessed are those who give without remembering and receive without forgetting.

Notes from OUR SCHOOL

As a Roman Catholic school, we are a community of parents, educators and students who value solid educational principles, opportunities for enrichment and the development of each child's unique God-given gifts.

We are the primary educational ministry of Blessed Sacrament and St. Joseph parishes, serving children in grades K4-8. We welcome students and their families of all faiths and cultural backgrounds who seek a nurturing, faith-based education in an environment of security and mutual respect.

In the spirit of the Sisters of Saints Cyril and Methodius, who have guided our school since its founding in 1948, we prepare children academically, spiritually, morally and socially for an effective future as citizens and servants of God.

SCHEDULE OF EVENTS

Your Personal Invitation

Catholic Schools Week January 31 - February 5, 2010

From January 31st to February 5th, Blessed Sacrament School is celebrating Catholic Schools Week. The theme of the week for Catholic schools in South Carolina is "Experience the Extraordinary." There are two opportunities to visit the school. We are having an Open House on Sunday, January 31st, from 12:00 - 2:00, and again on Tuesday, February 2nd from 9:00 - 11:00.

Please come to the school and look around. Our Beta Club students will take you on a tour and answer any questions you may have. After the tour, join us for coffee and pastries. Come and "Experience the Extraordinary" for yourself.
