RESPECT LIFE

Today's readings: Jesus told us that if we ask, we will receive. That is what Abraham also knew and carried out in the first reading. His prayer called upon the mercy of God. Jesus says that the greatest good we can ask for is the Holy Spirit. The Spirit brings that mercy, and enables us to say "Our Father." When we pray in that way, we are (like Abraham) calling down God's mercy on all our brothers and sisters. We are in fact defining ourselves as brothers and sisters because of the fact that we all have one Father.

This has implications. No longer can we exclude any person from our love. Love is indivisible, and must be extended to every human being. This is the basis of our pro-life convictions. In its broadest sense, the acknowledgment of God as Father extends to his role as Creator and affirms the responsibility we have to every human being (whether Christ or not) because he/she was made by and is loved by God. Hence, the unborn and the terminally ill cannot be excluded from personhood, from prayer, from protection, or from practical help. (www.priestsforlife.org)

Prayer: We pray for persons diagnosed with a terminal illness, that the love of Our Lord will be evident in the tender care they receive from family, friends, and caregivers.

PARISH NEWS

Blessed Sacrament Parish provides the CATHOLIC MISCELLANY, the Catholic newspaper of the Diocese, to every parish family. The cost to our parish is $22,000 per year to provide the Catholic Miscellany to our parishioners. The cost of a single subscription is $20. In your packet of envelopes this month is an envelope for your donation to help defray the costs to our parish. If you are not receiving the Miscellany and wish to receive it, or if you wish to discontinue the paper, please contact the parish office (556-0801).

HARPER DROLET, a fifth grade student at Blessed Sacrament School and a parishioner at Blessed Sacrament Church, has been diagnosed and is receiving chemotherapy for a rare soft tissue cancer. Her treatment is roughly a year long, and she is about half way through the treatment. There is a website www.carecalendar.org that gives us the opportunity to help the Drolet family with meals, lawn care, etc. The calendar ID is 24836 and the security code is 6203. If you are able to help in any way, please visit this website to sign-up. If you do not have access to a computer, you may call the parish office for assistance in signing up (Lori 556-0801). Any help will be much appreciated.

DID YOU KNOW in today's world, families, couples, teenagers and singles are looking for direction and advice when it comes to getting ahead in life, and especially out of the difficulties and uncertainties of their finances. God has given us over 800 verses in the Bible on how He intends for us to handle life and money. Watch the bulletin for an exciting announcement on upcoming classes at Blessed Sacrament Church to learn how to manage God's blessings God's way!
